

Le Man Avec Les Lunettes ::: Plaskaplaskabombelibom

They have released a debut composing by songs that are bundled up in the pop spirit with influence of Belle & Sebastian, Blur, Beatles, Beach Boys.

The band hails from northern Italy and plays a mellow, laidback, melancholy, but at the same time somewhat ironic music, mixing twee pop, weird electronic background noises with some kind of warm jazzy feel.

Since 2004 they've released different stuff including 3" CD-r, double 3" CD-r, CD-r, 7" vinyl and one 12", tape, digipack CD - with different labels around the world; they've played almost 100 gigs among Italy, France, Switzerland, Germany, Denmark and Sweden and Norway.

October 1st 2008 they will release the new album "Plaskaplaskabombelibom", they spent two years on it, they recorded, played, arranged and mixed the whole album by theirselves. In Italy will be released by My Honey rec. and Zahr rec., in Germany by Cake&Coffee rec.

Le Man Avec Les Lunettes are: Fabio Benni (voce, piano, organo), Simone Gelmini (batteria), Ombretta Ghidini (voce, chitarre, synth), Giorgio Marcelli (basso), Alessandro Paderno (voce, chitarre), Daniela Savoldi (violoncello).

Biography:

Italian project, born in the winter of 2004, actually composed by six-piece who plays sweet POP with awesome melodies! They have also toured Italy and Europe extensively (France, Switzerland, Germany, Denmark, Sweden and Norway). In 2008, after some EPs, split singles, compilations in different formats, Le Man Avec Les Lunettes will release their first complete album. They have played, recorded and mixed (almost) by themselves and the album will be released October the 1st in Italy by My Honey rec. and Zahr rec. and in Germany by Cake and Coffee rec.
